

Christopher Wong is a fourth-year student at Baylor College of Medicine with career interests in internal medicine-pediatrics, global health, and physician advocacy. A native Houstonian, he graduated summa cum laude from the University of Houston in 2018 with majors in Liberal Studies, Biology, and French. Last year, Chris studied the MSc Nutrition for Global Health at the London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine on a $30,000 scholarship funded by a generous endowed gift from Carl Stutts. He was sponsored by the R.C. of Pasadena in District 5890, and was hosted by the R.C. of Enfield Chase in District 1130.

Outside of academia, Chris is a longtime violinist for the Texas Medical Center Orchestra and enjoys cooking, biking, and writing. He is immensely grateful for Rotary's continued support of his past and future scholastic and extracurricular endeavors.
